Special Meeting MINUTES

10 July 2017

Wilton Town Hall Annex Room A 5:00 pm

- I. Call to order - 5:00 PM
 - a. Attendance – Sanders, Follett, Whitten, Weatherly. Chairs planned recusal from the 224 Danbury COA vote necessitated both alternates be seated to achieve quorum. Motion to seat Fusco and Gustafson was made by Follett, seconded by Weatherly, all approved
 - b. Minutes – June minutes will be reviewed and a vote to approve at our next scheduled meeting on September 10
- II. COA Requests:

224 Danbury Road – Wilton Historical Society, Historic District #5, submitted a COA request for “way-finder” signage to be placed on each structure in the complex. Pamela Hovland presented visual images and samples of the aluminium pin-mounted signs to be colored to match paint finishes on each building; a “Museum” sign above main entry; and smaller in-ground signs for the garden, etc. Signs are consistent with existing road-side designs. Motion was made by Weatherly that impact was “minor”, seconded by Whitten, all voted in favor. Motion to approve signs was made by Weatherly, seconded by Fusco, all voted in favor

80 Ridgefield Road – Home is located in Wilton Center Historic District. Homeowner Jonathan Foltz shared a completed COA form with structure images and explained detail of his wish to replace current cedar shingle roof with “Weathered Wood” asphalt shingles. This is the same shingle used on the Comstock Barns that was approved by HD&HP Commission in 2011. Motion was made by Weatherly that change was “minor”, seconded by Sanders, all approved. Motion to approve was made by Weatherly, seconded by Whitten, all approved
- III. Public Comment – There was no public comment.
- IV. Adjournment – Chair adjourned the meeting at 5:31 PM
