Continuation of outdoor dining

Replace the existing three sections of the Wilton Zoning Regulations:

Section 29-6.C.5.c - Permitted accessory Uses in the Wilton Center Zone, Section 29-6.A.4.f, Permitted Accessory Uses in the Design Retail Business zone and Section 29-6.B.4.d, Permitted Accessory Uses in the General Business Zone with the following language, using the same numbering:

Continuation of Temporary Outdoor Dining:

Any restaurant operating with an approved temporary outdoor dining permit issued by the Town of Wilton as of the effective date of this amendment may continue to operate and use the area approved and as shown in that permit provided an additional application shall be made to the Planning and Zoning Officer for any expansion of a previously approved outdoor dining. Any new temporary outdoor dining will require a new application and permit in order to operate.

The use shall at all times continue to be used in accordance with all federal, state and local guidelines and requirements,

Such extension shall not be interpreted to create any nonconforming right and further provided that the operation of the Temporary Outdoor dining between now and the expiration of this regulation shall be deemed to be a complete and total waiver of nonconforming rights under any local, state or federal authority.
