Date: February 12, 2024

A FUTURE MEETING OF THE POLICE COMMISSION

Call To Order

Commission Chairman Chris Giovino called the meeting to order at 4:30 p.m. In attendance were Commissioners Giovino, Adrienne Reedy and Thomas Sinchak, Chief Thomas Conlan, Deputy Chief Robert Cipolla and Captain Gregg Phillipson.

Public Comment

Steven Georgeou, 63 Cannon Road, Barbara Geddes, 296 Cannon Road, and Sarah Curtis, 290 Cannon Road, spoke in favor of implementing enhanced traffic safety measures on Cannon Road, including electronic radar surveillance and the adoption of a no-through truck zone. Chief Conlan noted that electronic enforcement is still a new technology currently only being used in a few municipalities in Connecticut. He believes that it would be prudent to allow more time to evaluate the results in those towns before considering adopting it in Wilton. We will revisit the issue later this year. The Commission requested that Chief Conlan discuss various recommended traffic safety options with the Weston Police Department.

Activity Reports – a spike in automobile break-ins was noted, which is consistent with what other neighboring towns are experiencing.

Overtime Report – Chief Conlan noted that we will likely exceed our budgeted overtime for FY 2024, largely due to the four (4) open officer positions, but that this will be offset in whole or in part by the salaries/benefits that would have been paid if those positions were filled. Chief Conlan reiterated the Department's commitment to return to full staffing.
