

Rating Action: Moody's assigns Aaa to Wilton, CT's GO bonds

27 Apr 2023

New York, April 27, 2023 -- Moody's Investors Service has assigned a Aaa rating to the Town of Wilton, CT's $13.1 million General Obligation Bonds, Issue of 2023. Moody's maintains Aaa issuer and general obligation unlimited tax (GOULT) ratings for the town. Inclusive of the current issuance the town has approximately $77.2 million in debt outstanding. The outlook is stable.

RATINGS RATIONALE

The Aaa rating reflects Wilton's stable local economy, supported by an exceptionally strong residential market and high resident incomes. The rating additionally reflects the town's low leverage and fixed costs, stable financial operations and moderate reserves and liquidity. We anticipate that these characteristics will remain key credit strengths for the town.

The absence of distinction between the GOULT rating and the issuer rating reflects the town's full faith and credit pledge. The bonds are paid from a dedicated property tax that is not limited by rate or amount and is levied on all taxable property within the town.

RATING OUTLOOK

The stable outlook reflects the expectation that the town's financial position will remain sound given reliance on property tax revenues and proactive management of long-term liabilities.

- N/A

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO A DOWNGRADE OF THE RATING
